

Science & Technology Project with parents

On the 15th February parents of children were invited to attend a science lesson. Together with their parents children learnt about magnets and force through a hands-on activity.

